Counsel for Applicant(s)	:	Prashant Kumar Tripathi
Counsel for Opposite Party(s)	:	G.A.

Court No. - 72

HON'BLE VIVEK KUMAR SINGH, J.

1. Supplementary affidavit filed today is taken on record.
2. Heard Sri Prashant Kumar Tripathi, learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A for the State and perused the record.
3. The present application has been filed on behalf of the applicant in Case Crime No. 178 of 2026, under Sections 191 (2), 117(2), 115(2), 109 of B.N.S., Police Station - Gulariha, District Gorakhpur, with a prayer to grant him anticipatory bail.
4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is absolutely innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. He has nothing to do with the alleged offence in spite of that the police are trying to arrest the applicant. It is further contended that the F.I.R. was lodged by Suraj Chauhan son of Lt. Mahendra Chauhan, against two named accused namely Manjeet Chauhan, Karan Chauhan and 4 to 5 unknown persons. The name of the present applicant was taken for the first time by injured witness Vishal Chauhan, who happens to be real brother of the first informant Suraj Chauhan. It is further submitted that the F.I.R. was lodged on 04.03.2026, whereas the name of the applicant was taken on 19.03.2026. The injury report of injured Vishal Chauhan indicates that he sustained a single injury over left side of parietal area of head which was found to be simple in nature. It is further submitted that name of the applicant was taken in the present case after due deliberation and consultation. The name of the applicant was not taken by another injured Atul Chauhan. The named accused persons Manjeet Chauhan and Karan Chauhan have been enlarged on regular bail by co-ordinate Benches of this Court vide orders dated 24.06.2026 and 11.06.2026 in Crl. Misc. Bail Application Nos. 21446 of 2026 and 17567 of 2026, respectively. The criminal history of one case has been explained in the supplementary affidavit. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that the applicant undertakes to cooperate during investigation and trial and shall appear as and when required by the Investigating Agency or the Court concerned. It has also been stated that, in case the applicant is granted anticipatory bail, he shall not misuse the liberty of bail, shall cooperate with the investigation, and shall abide by all the conditions that may be imposed by the Court.

5. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. has opposed the application for anticipatory bail, however, he does not dispute the factual aspect.

6. I have heard the rival submissions of both sides and perused the record.

7. In Sushila Aggarwal and others vs. State (NCT of Delhi) and another, (2020) 5 SCC 1, the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that while considering an application for grant of anticipatory bail, the court has to consider the nature of the offence, the role of the person, the likelihood of his influencing the course of investigation, or tampering with evidence including intimidating witnesses, likelihood of fleeing justice, such as leaving the country, etc. It has further been held that Courts ought to be generally guided by considerations such as the nature and gravity of the offences, the role attributed to the applicant, and the facts of the case, while considering whether to grant anticipatory bail, or refuse it. Whether to grant or not is a matter of discretion.

8. In Siddharth Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh & Another, (2022) 1 Supreme Court Cases 676, the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that personal liberty is an important aspect of our constitutional mandate. The occasion to arrest an accused during investigation arises when custodial investigation becomes necessary or it is a heinous crime or where there is a possibility of influencing the witnesses or accused may abscond. Merely because an arrest can be made because it is lawful does not mandate that arrest must be made. A distinction must be made between the existence of the power to arrest and the justification for exercise of it. If arrest is made routine, it can cause incalculable harm to the reputation and self-esteem of a person. If the Investigating Officer has no reason to believe that the accused will abscond or disobey summons and has, in fact, throughout cooperated with the investigation, then there is no compulsion on the officer to arrest the accused.

9. Considering the settled principle of law regarding anticipatory bail, submissions of the learned counsel for the parties, nature of accusation, role of applicant and all attending facts and circumstances of the case, without expressing any opinion on merits, a case for anticipatory bail is made out.

10. Accordingly, the anticipatory bail application is allowed with following directions:-

(i) In the event of arrest of the applicant- Pintu involved in aforesaid case shall be released on anticipatory bail till the conclusion of trial, on his furnishing a personal bond of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties each of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Station House Officer of the police station concerned or the court concerned.

(ii) The applicant shall co-operate with the Investigating Officer during investigation and shall report to the Investigating Officer as and when required for the purpose of conducting investigation;

(iii) The applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her/him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer; and

(iv) The applicant shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.

11. In default or misuse of any of the conditions, the Public Prosecutor/ Investigating Officer/ first informant-complainant is at liberty to file appropriate application for cancellation of anticipatory bail granted to the applicant, before the concerned court.
