

2026:AHC:128723

HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT ALLAHABAD

WRIT - C No. - 23906 of 2026

Deeksha Gangwar And Another

.....Petitioner(s)

Versus

State Of U.P. And 3 Others

.....Respondent(s)

Counsel for Petitioner(s)	:	Suresh Singh
Counsel for Respondent(s)	:	C.S.C.

Court No. - 73

HON'BLE SIDDHARTH NANDAN, J.

1. Heard Shri Suresh Singh, learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

2. The present writ petition has been filed with the following prayers:

“(I) Issue a writ order or direction in the nature of MANDAMUS Commanding and directing the respondents and their agents not to interfere in peaceful life of the petitioners they are live in relationship in any manner, whatsoever.

(II) Issue a writ order or direction in the nature of MANDAMUS Commanding and directing the respondents no.2, 3 & 4 and their agents not to harass the petitioners or interfere in the peaceful life of the petitioners to ensure the safety of the life of the petitioners.

(III) Issue any other suitable order or direction as this Hon'ble court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.”

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that both the petitioners are major and are living together in a live-in relationship since 26.05.2026. However, the family members are continuously harassing the petitioners and interfering in their peaceful relationship and therefore, they have filed the present writ petition invoking the extraordinary jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, seeking protection of their life and liberty, as enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

4. In the case of Gian Devi Vs. Superintendent Nari Niketan Delhi and Others, reported in (1976) 3 SCC 234, a three-Judges Bench of the Apex Court had held that if a girl is major, then no fetter can be placed upon her choice of the person, with whom she is to stay nor any restrictions can be imposed regarding the place where she should stay; and if she is more than 18 years of age, she is sui juris. The relatives cannot substitute their opinion or preference, for that of the petitioner in such a matter.

5. In the case of Lata Singh vs. State of U.P., reported in (2006) 5 SCC 475, the Apex Court also considered and welcome the inter-caste marriages and held that once a person becomes major, he or she can marry whoever he/she likes.

6. The said judgment was also upheld by the three-Judges Bench of the Supreme Court in the case of S. Khushboo Vs. Kanniamal and Another, reported in (2010) 5 SCC 600; and held that a major girl is free to marry anyone she likes or “live with anyone she likes”.

7. The Court also observed that the notion of social morality are inherently subjective and the criminal law cannot be used as a means to unduly interfere with the domain of personal autonomy. Morality or criminality are not coextensive (Ref: Nand Kumar and Another Vs. State of Kerala and Others, reported in (2018) 16 SCC 602).

8. In the facts of the case, it is evident that both the petitioners are major and the affidavit filed along with the present writ petition is by way of joint affidavit of the petitioners and the learned Standing Counsel representing the State, also does not dispute the factum that both the petitioners are major; and as such the present writ petition is being disposed off at the admission stage itself; but however if any facts stated in the affidavit filed along with present writ petition is found to be incorrect, it shall be open to the respondents to file a recall application.

9. Accordingly, the present writ petition is disposed off with the consent of the parties, with the following directions.

(i) The petitioners are at liberty to live together and in case any person interferes in their peaceful living, the petitioners shall approach the concerned Senior Superintendent of Police or Superintendent of Police, with a certified copy of this order, who shall provide immediate protection to the petitioners, without any delay.

(ii) The petitioners undertake to apply for registration of their marriage before the Registrar of marriage under the Uttar Pradesh Marriage Registration Rules, 2017 within a period of two weeks from today and get their marriage registered expeditiously, if not already done so.

(iii) In case, an application is moved by the petitioners for registration of their marriage, it shall be expected from the Registrar of Marriage under Rules, 2017, to register their marriage within a period of four weeks from the date of such application, if there is no other legal impediment.

10. With the aforesaid observation and direction, the writ petition stands disposed off.

(Siddharth Nandan,J.)

June 23, 2026

Sumit K.