Party(s)

Counsel for Applicant(s) : Akhilesh Kumar Mishra, Devendra Kumar, Mintu Kumar, Vinay Kumar Singh Chandel

Counsel for Opposite Party(s) : Ajeet Kumar Singh, Deepak Rana, G.A., Prem Shankar

Court No. - 66

HON'BLE KRISHAN PAHAL, J.

1. List has been revised.
2. Heard Sri Akhilesh Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Prem Shankar, learned counsel for the informant as well as Ms. Ifrah Islma, learned State Law Officer for the State and perused the material placed on record.
3. Applicant seeks bail in Case Crime No.111 of 2021, under Sections 302, 120-B I.P.C., Police Station- Loni, District- Ghaziabad, during the pendency of trial.
4. This is the second bail application on behalf of the applicant. The first bail application was dismissed as withdrawn by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 6.4.2023 passed in Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.44634 of 2022, as such, virtually this is first bail application.
5. Learned counsel for the applicant has argued that the applicant is absolutely innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. He has nothing to do with the said offence. The trial is at its conclusive end, but a Criminal Revision No.4440 of 2025 was filed by the informant before this Court and the proceedings have been stayed by this Court vide order dated 14.8.2025.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant has further stated that the applicant is languishing in jail since 14.4.2021, as such, the period of incarceration comes out to be 04 years and 09 months. The fundamental rights of the applicant enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India stand violated, as there is no likelihood of conclusion of trial in near future. There is no criminal history of the applicant and he is ready to cooperate with trial. In case, the applicant is released on bail, he will not misuse the liberty of bail.

7. Per contra, learned counsel for the informant and learned State Law Officer have vehemently opposed the bail application.

8. This Court had called for the status of trial from the concerned trial court. As per the said status report dated 2.12.2025, the proceedings have been stayed by this Court vide order dated 14.8.2025 passed in Criminal Revision No.4440 of 2025.

9. The trial is not moving ahead and the said criminal revision has been filed by the prosecution. The prosecution cannot keep the applicant incarcerated by getting the proceedings stayed and not letting the trial proceed further.

10. Granting the bail to the accused in Javed Gulam Nabi Shaikh Vs. State of Maharashtra and Another 2024 INSC 645, the Supreme Court has observed:

7. Having heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and having gone through the materials on record, we are inclined to exercise our discretion in favour of the appellant herein keeping in mind the following aspects:

(i) The appellant is in jail as an under-trial prisoner past four years;

(ii) Till this date, the trial court has not been able to even proceed to frame charge; and

(iii) As pointed out by the counsel appearing for the State as well as NIA, the prosecution intends to examine not less than eighty witnesses.

8. Having regard to the aforesaid, we wonder by what period of time, the trial will ultimately conclude. Howsoever serious a crime may be, an accused has a right to speedy trial as enshrined under the Constitution of India.

9. Over a period of time, the trial courts and the High Courts have forgotten a very well settled principle of law that bail is not to be withheld as a punishment.

10. In the aforesaid context, we may remind the trial courts and the High Courts of what came to be observed by this Court in Gudikanti Narasimhulu & Ors. v. Public Prosecutor, High Court reported in (1978) 1 SCC 240. We quote:

"What is often forgotten, and therefore warrants reminder, is the object to keep a person in judicial custody pending trial or disposal of an appeal. Lord Russel, C.J., said [R v. Rose, (1898) 18 Cox]:

"I observe that in this case bail was refused for the prisoner. It cannot be too strongly impressed on the, magistracy of the country that bail is not to be withheld as a punishment, but that the requirements as to bail are merely to secure the attendance of the prisoner at trial."

11. The same principle was reiterated by the Supreme Court in Gurbaksh Singh Sibba v. State of Punjab, (1980) 2 SCC 565; Hussainara Khatoon v. Home Secy., State of Bihar (1980) 1 SCC 81; Kadra Pahadiya & Ors. v. State of Bihar (1981) 3 SCC 671 and Abdul Rehman Antulay v. R.S. Nayak (1992) 1 SCC 225; Mohd Muslim @ Hussain v. State (NCT of Delhi) 2023 INSC 311; A Convict Prisoner v. State 1993 Cri LJ 3242; Union of India v. K.A. Najeeb (2021) 3 SCC 713; Indrani Pratim Mukerjea v. CBI, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 695.

12. In the money laundering case of V. Senthil Balaji V. The Deputy Director, Directorate of Enforcement 2024 INSC 739, the accused was incarcerated for more than 15 months as such the Supreme Court declared " inordinate delay in the conclusion of the trial and the higher threshold for the grant of bail cannot go together".

13. In Satender Kumar Antil v. Central Bureau of Investigation reported in (2022) 10 SCC 51, prolonged incarceration and inordinate delay engaged the attention of the court, which considered the correct approach towards bail, with respect to several enactments, including Section 37 NDPS Act.

14. The Supreme Court in its latest judgement passed in SLP (Crl.) Nos.10455-10456/2025 Ramnath Mishra @ Ramanath Mishra v. Central Bureau of Investigation reiterated that issues of personal liberty must be addressed with utmost speed by Courts. The accused had already been incarcerated for more than three and a half years, in the instant and connected matters. Releasing accused on bail due to excessive delays by the High Court in deciding his application also took into account lengthy pre-trial confinement, emphasizing speedy decision-making for matters of personal liberty.

15. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by learned counsel for the parties, the evidence on record, taking into consideration that applicant is incarcerated in jail for a considerable period of time and there is no likelihood of conclusion of trial in near future as on the basis of criminal revision filed by the informant the proceedings have been brought to a standstill, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the Court is of the view that the applicant has made out a case for bail. The bail application is allowed.

16. Let the applicant- Deepak, who is involved in aforementioned case crime be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned subject to following conditions. Further, before issuing the release order, the sureties be verified.

(i) The applicant shall not tamper with evidence during trial.

(ii) The applicant shall not pressurize/intimidate the prosecution witnesses.

(iii) The applicant shall appear before the trial court on the date fixed.

17. In case of breach of any of the above conditions, it shall be a ground for cancellation of bail.

18. It is made clear that observations made in granting bail to the applicant shall not in any way affect the learned trial Judge in forming his independent opinion based on the testimony of the witnesses.
