4. Learned counsel for the applicant has stated that admittedly there is cross-version to the incident as two persons from the side of applicant have also sustained injuries in the said incident. Although the applicant has been assigned the role of having assaulted the deceased person with Farsa, but the said allegations are per se false and at this point of time it cannot be ascertained as to which party was the aggressor one.
5. It is submitted by learned counsel for the applicant that the case of applicant is at par with co-accused persons, Satish and Rajpal who have already been enlarged on bail by this Court vide order dated 8.1.2026 passed in Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.202 of 2026. The applicant is languishing in jail since 4.9.2025, having no criminal history. However, the aforesaid factual aspects of parity to the co-accused and of no criminal history of the applicant, have not been disputed by him.

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by learned counsel for the parties, the evidence on record, and also taking into consideration the judgment of the Supreme Court passed in the case of Paras Ram Vishnoi vs. The Director, Central Bureau of Investigation, MANU/SCOR/22410/2021 and the judgment of this Court passed in the case of Nanha S/o Nabhan Kha vs. State of U.P., 1993 Cri.L.J. 938 coupled with the judgment of Supreme Court passed in Satender Kumar Antil vs. Central Bureau of Investigation and another reported in 2022 SCC OnLine SC 825, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the Court is of the view that the applicant has made out a case for bail on the ground of parity. The bail application is allowed on the ground of parity.

8. Let the applicant- Dharmveer involved in aforementioned case crime number be released on bail on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned subject to following conditions.

10. Identity, status and residence proof of the applicant and sureties be verified by the court concerned before the bonds are accepted.

11. It is made clear that observations made in granting bail to the applicant shall not in any way affect the learned trial Judge in forming his independent opinion on the testimony of the witnesses.
