HON'BLE JITENDRA KUMAR SINHA, J.

1. Heard Sri Kartikey Singh, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri B.P. Maurya, learned AGA for the State-respondents and perused the record.
2. The present bail application under Section 483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, has been filed on behalf of applicant with a prayer to release him on bail in Case Crime No. 35 of 2026, under Section 3/5/8 Cow Slaughter Act and Section 11 of Animal Cruelty Act and Section 325 BNS, Police Station Highway, District Mathura, during pendency of the trial.
3. It has been argued by the learned counsel for the applicant that applicant is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. It is further submitted that nothing has been recovered from the possession of the applicant and the applicant is said to have fled away from the place of incident when the police raided his house. It is submitted that police found that act of cow slaughtering was being carried out in the house of the applicant. It is further submitted that the applicant has explained criminal history of one case which has been mentioned in the rejection order of the learned Sessions Court. It is also submitted that the applicant, who has been languishing in jail since 10.1.2026 undertakes that he will not misuse the liberty, if granted. It has also been pointed out that in the wake of heavy pendency of cases in the Court, there is no likelihood of any early conclusion of trial.

4. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. has opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the applicant and it is submitted that the applicant is having criminal history of three cases and he has explained only one case and two other cases relating to the offences under Sections 323, 504, 506, 452 IPC have not been explained.

5. The applicant is said to have fled away from the place of occurrence when the police raided his house and the police found that act of cow slaughtering is said to have been carried out in the house of the applicant. The applicant has been languishing in jail since 10.1.2026 and he is having criminal history of three cases relating to the offences under Sections 323, 504, 506, 452 IPC.

6. Upon considering the totality of facts, nature and the evidence reflected from record and without expressing any opinion on merits of the case, I find it to be a fit case for bail. Hence, the present bail application is ALLOWED.

7. Let the applicant- Karman involved in the aforesaid case crime be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court concerned with the following conditions :-

(i) The applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat, or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

(ii) The applicant shall not pressurize/intimidate the prosecution witnesses.

(iii) The applicant shall remain present, in person, before the trial court on the dates fixed for (i) opening of the case, (ii) framing of charge and (iii) recording of statement under Section 351 of B.N.S.S.

(iv) The applicant shall file an undertaking to the effect that he shall not seek any adjournment on the dates fixed for evidence when the witnesses are present in the trial court.

(v) The applicant shall remain present before the trial court on each date fixed, either personally or through his counsel.

8. In case of breach of any of the above conditions, it shall be a ground for cancellation of bail.

9. It is clarified that anything said in this order is limited to the purpose of determination of this bail application and will in no way be construed as an expression on the merits of the case. The trial court shall be absolutely free to arrive at its independent conclusions on the basis of evidence led unaffected by anything said in this order.
