Court No. - 65

HON'BLE DR. GAUTAM CHOWDHARY, J.

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant as well as learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the material brought on record.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that applicant is named in the F.I.R. Initially the F.I.R. was lodged under Sections 64, 351(2) B.N.S. and Section 3/4 of Protection of Children From Sexual Offences Act, but after investigation the provisions of POCSO Act have been dropped. In the FIR it has been alleged by the informant that when on 11.08.2025 his mentally retarded daughter was sleeping in her house along with her two brothers, then in the midnight the applicant came there and committed her rape and he also threatened both the brothers of the victim who were laying beside her. It has also been stated in the FIR that blood is present in the clothes of the victim and in the bed also upon which the victim was sleeping. Statements of the victim under Sections 180 & 183 BNSS were recorded with the help of psychiatric, in which she made allegation of rape against the applicant. The victim was medically examined after two days of the alleged incident in which external or internal injury was found on her person, the concerned doctor found no sign of use of force and in her vaginal smears no spermatozoa was seen, thus, medical evidence does not corroborate with the allegation of forcible rape committed upon her. Thus, it has been argued that it is a false case of implication and the applicant has been implicated in the case with false and frivolous allegations due to ulterior motive and malafide intention. Several other submissions in order to demonstrate the falsity of the allegations made against the applicant have also been placed before the Court. The circumstances which, according to the counsel, led to the false implication of the accused have also been mentioned. It has also been assured on behalf of the applicant that he is ready to cooperate with the process of law and shall faithfully make himself available before the court whenever required and is also ready to accept all the conditions which the Court may deem fit to impose upon him. He next submits that the applicant is in jail since 16.08.2025, with no criminal history.

3. Per contra, learned A.G.A. has opposed the prayer for bail of the applicant by contending that the innocence of the applicant cannot be adjudged at pre trial stage, therefore, he does not deserve any indulgence.

4. Considering the overall facts and circumstances, the nature of allegations, the gravity of offence and without expressing any opinion on merits, this Court finds it to be a fit case for bail. Accordingly, the bail application stands allowed.

5. Let the applicant-Ravi Kumar, be enlarged on bail in Case Crime No. 220 of 2025, under Section 64(2)(k), 351(2) of B.N.S., Police Station-Husainganj, District- Fatehpur, on executing a personal bond and furnishing two local sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned with the following conditions:

- i) The applicant shall not tamper with the prosecution evidence.
- ii) The applicant shall not threaten or harass the prosecution witnesses.
- iii) The applicant shall appear on the date fixed by the trial court.
- iv) The applicant shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which the applicant is accused, or suspected of the commission.
- v) The applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade such person from disclosing facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

6. In case of default of any of the conditions enumerated above, the court concerned shall be at liberty to cancel the bail of applicant in accordance with law.
