Party(s)

Counsel for Applicant(s)	:	Alok Kumar Singh
Counsel for Opposite Party(s)	:	G.A.

Court No. - 68

HON'BLE ASHUTOSH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Heard Shri Alok Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the applicant, Shri Manoj Kumar Singh, learned AGA for the State-respondents and perused the record.

This bail application under Section 483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 has been moved on behalf of accused-applicant, Salman, seeking enlargement on bail in Case Crime No. 373 of 2025, under Sections 352, 109 (1), 3 (5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and Section 4/25 of Arms Act, Police Station Loni, District Ghaziabad, during the pendency of the trial before the Court below.

Learned counsel for the applicant argued that the accused-applicant is innocent. He has been falsely implicated in this very case crime number and is languishing in jail since 5.8.2025. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that no specific role has been assigned in the FIR version as well as in the statement of first informant recorded under Section 180 BNSS. His name featured on the record on the basis of statement of injured. The FIR has been delayed by 17 hours and no explanation has been given. Charge sheet in this case has been filed on 29.9.2025 and cognizance thereon has already been taken on 17.10.2025. He has no criminal antecedent and there is no likelihood of his fleeing from course of justice or tampering with evidence in case of release on bail. Hence, bail has been prayed for.

Learned AGA has vehemently opposed the prayer for bail.

Considering all above facts and circumstances, the nature of accusations, severity of the punishment in the case of conviction and nature of supporting evidence, reasonable apprehension of tampering with the witness and prima facie case, but without commenting on merit of case, a case for bail is made out.

Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.

Let the accused-applicant, Salman, involved in above mentioned case crime number be released on bail, on his executing a personal bond and two reliable sureties each, in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned, subject to the following conditions:

1. The applicant will not tamper with the evidence.
2. The applicant will not indulge in any criminal activity.
3. The applicant will not pressurize/intimidate the prosecution witnesses and co-operate in the trial.
4. The applicant will appear regularly on each and every date fixed by the trial court, unless his personal appearance is exempted through counsel by the court concerned.

In the event of breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the court below will be at liberty to proceed to cancel his bail.
