HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

1. Heard Ms. Anjum Parveen, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Roshan Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

3. Contention of learned counsel for the applicant is that the applicant is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in the present case. He further submitted that in the FIR, the applicant was named as one of the accused on the basis of apprehension and doubt. Subsequently, on the basis of CCTV footage, it was found that the applicant was driving his E-rickshaw and co-accused Kallan was sitting along with the deceased Sarfaraz. Subsequently, it was found that co-accused Kallan was chasing the deceased, though initially the applicant also went to that side but immediately he returned and this fact was duly substantiated by the statement of the eye-witness Mohd. Raja. He further submitted that the dead-body of the deceased was recovered from a CPC godown where the co-accused Kallan chased the deceased after quarrel being taken place over the money, therefore, the applicant has not committed any offence. In case the applicant is released on bail, he will not misuse the liberty of bail and would cooperate in the trial proceedings.

4. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. for the State opposed the prayer for bail but could not dispute the aforesaid fact.

5. Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, submissions of learned counsel for the parties and also keeping in view the nature of offence, evidence, complicity of the accused and also taking into account overcrowded jails and heavy pendency of criminal cases before the trial courts as well as considering the mandate of the judgement of the Apex Court in the case of Kapil Wadhawan vs Central Bureau of Investigation reported in 2025 SCC OnLine SC 3038 and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I am of the opinion that the applicant is entitled to be enlarged on bail. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.

- ii. The applicant shall cooperate in the trial/investigation sincerely without seeking any adjournment.
- iii. The applicant shall not indulge in any criminal activity or commission of any crime after being released on bail.

Office is directed to send a copy of this order to the applicant through concerned Jail Superintendent via e-mail or e-prison portal in compliance of the order of the Apex Court in the case of Policy Strategy for Grant of Bail, In Re: Suo Motu Writ Petition (Crl.) No. 4 of 2021 decided on 31.01.2023 reported in (2024) 10 SCC 685.
