Court No. - 72

HON'BLE JITENDRA KUMAR SINHA, J.

1. Heard Shri Mohd. Kamar Shah Alam, holding brief of Shri Pushpendra Singh, learned counsel for the applicant, Shri B.P. Maurya, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. The present application has been moved seeking anticipatory bail in Case Crime no.1090 of 2025, under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 115(2), 352, 109(1), 125 of B.N.S., Police Station Sikandrabad, District Bulandshahr, with the prayer that in the event of arrest, applicant may be released on bail.

3. It has been argued by the learned counsel for the applicant that applicant is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. It is further submitted that co-accused Mohd. Zeeshan and Sairaan have already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court vide orders dated 10.02.2026 and 09.03.2026 passed in Criminal Misc. Anticipatory Bail Application U/s 482 BNSS Nos. 1289 of 2026 and 1219 of 2026. It is further submitted that the first information report has been lodged against 40-50 unknown persons and no specific role has been assigned to the applicant and the name of the applicant has surfaced in the confessional statement of the first informant during investigation and none of the injuries of the injured have been found to be dangerous to life. It is also submitted that the applicant is having no criminal history. It was also submitted that applicant undertakes to co-operate during trial and he would appear as and when required by the investigating agency or Court. It has been stated that in case, applicant is granted anticipatory bail, he shall not misuse the liberty of bail and will co-operate with the investigation and would obey all conditions of bail.

4. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. has opposed the application for anticipatory bail and it has been submitted by him that the applicant is having criminal history of one case relating to the offence under Sections 115(2) and 351(3) BNSS.

5. Co-accused Mohd. Zeeshan and Sairaan have already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court vide orders dated 10.02.2026 and 09.03.2026 passed in Criminal Misc. Anticipatory Bail Application U/s 482 BNSS Nos. 1289 of 2026 and 1219 of 2026. First information report has been lodged against 40-50 unknown persons and no specific role has been assigned to the applicant and the name of the applicant has surfaced in the confessional statement of the first informant during investigation and none of the injuries of the injured have been found to be dangerous to life and the applicant is having criminal history of one case relating to the offence under Sections 115(2) and 351(3) BNSS as pointed out by the learned AGA.

6. It may be stated that in case of Siddharam Satlingappa Mhetre v. State of Maharashtra, (2011) 1 SCC 694, it has been held by Hon'ble Supreme Court that while deciding anticipatory bail, Court must consider nature and gravity of accusation, antecedent of accused, possibility of accused to flee from justice and that Court must evaluate entire available material against the accused carefully and that the exact role of the accused has also to be taken into consideration.

7. In the instant case, considering the settled principle of law regarding anticipatory bail, submissions of the learned counsel for the parties, role of applicant and all attending facts and circumstances of the case, without expressing any opinion on merits, a case for anticipatory bail is made out.

8. The anticipatory bail application is allowed.

9. In the event of arrest of the applicant- Salman @ Aashiaf involved in the aforesaid case crime shall be released on anticipatory bail on his furnishing a personal bond of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court concerned, with the following conditions :-

- (i) The applicant shall not tamper with evidence and that he would appear before the trial Court on the date fixed unless exempted by the Court concerned;
- (ii) The applicant shall not directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her/them from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;
- (iii) The applicant would co-operate during trial and would not misuse the liberty of bail.
- (iv) The applicant shall not leave India without prior permission of the Court concerned.

10. In default of any of the conditions, the prosecution shall be at liberty to file appropriate application for cancellation of anticipatory bail granted to the applicant.
