Court No. - 72

HON'BLE JITENDRA KUMAR SINHA, J.

1. Heard Sri Sri Ankit Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Devendra Kr. Mishra, advocate holding brief of Sri Akhilesh Kr. Mishra, learned counsel for the first informant and Sri Radhey Shyam, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.
2. The present application has been moved seeking anticipatory bail in Case Crime no. 759 of 2025, under Sections 318(4), 336(3), 338, 340(2), 61(2) of B.N.S., Police Station Hapur Nagar, District Hapur, with the prayer that in the event of arrest, applicant may be released on bail.
3. It is contended by learned counsel for the applicant that similarly placed co-accused Mamta Verma has already been released on anticipatory bail by this Court vide order dated 16.3.2026 in Anticipatory Bail Application No. 1826 of 2026. It is further submitted that as per the F.I.R., the applicant is said to be a witness in a proceeding in which a forged death certificate of the deceased Arun Kumar Verma has been prepared. He undertakes to co-operate during trial and to appear as and when required by the investigating agency or Court and in case he is granted anticipatory bail, he shall not misuse the liberty of bail and would obey all conditions of bail.
4. On the other hand, learned counsel for the first informant and learned A.G.A. opposed the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail and submitted that wrong information was given to the authorities for preparation of the death certificate of Arun Kumar Verma.
5. I have considered the rival submissions made by learned counsel for the parties.

6. The applicant is said to have given wrong information to the authorities during proceeding of the death certificate of Arun Kumar Verma. The co-accused Mamta Verma has already been released on anticipatory bail by this Court.

7. It may be stated that in case of Siddharam Satlingappa Mhetre v. State of Maharashtra, (2011) 1 SCC 694, it has been held by Hon'ble Supreme Court that while deciding anticipatory bail, the Court must consider nature and gravity of accusation, antecedents of the accused, possibility of accused to flee from justice and that Court must evaluate the entire available material against the accused carefully and the exact role of accused has also to be taken into consideration.

8. Considering all attending facts and circumstances of the case, settled principle of law regarding anticipatory bail, submissions of learned counsel for the parties, nature of accusation, role of applicant and without expressing any opinion on merits, a case for anticipatory bail is made out.

9. The anticipatory bail application is allowed.

10. In the event of arrest of the applicant Chandrahas involved in the aforesaid case crime, he shall be released on anticipatory bail on his furnishing a personal bond of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Court concerned, with the following conditions :-

(i) The applicant shall not tamper with evidence and shall appear before the trial Court either in person or through counsel on each and every date fixed unless exempted by the Court concerned and shall not seek any undue adjournment;

(ii) The applicant shall not directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him/her/them from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

(iii) The applicant would co-operate during trial and would not misuse the liberty of bail.

(iv) The applicant shall not leave India without prior permission of the Court concerned.

11. In default of any of the conditions, the prosecution shall be at liberty to file appropriate application for cancellation of anticipatory bail granted to the applicant.
