Thereafter, Imran was arrested along with incriminating material and he in his confessional statement, informed that the applicant was also involved in selling illegal arms in the market after purchasing the same from him. Thereafter, the applicant was also arrested and a false recovery of a pistol was also shown from the applicant.

4. It is further submitted that, admittedly, an illegal factory for the manufacture of illegal arms was being run by co-accused Imran and the applicant has no concern with the aforesaid factory, yet he has been falsely implicated in the present case merely on the basis of the confessional statement of co-accused Imran. It is further submitted by
