Court No. - 4

HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

1. Heard Sri Niyaj Ahamad, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Anurag Pandey, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record. However, no one appeared on behalf of the first informant despite service of notice on 25.05.2026 by the concerned police.

2. Instant bail application has been filed with a prayer to release the applicant on bail during the trial in Case Crime No. 315 of 2025, under Sections 137(2), 64(1) BNS and 3/4 POCSO Act, Police Station- Khurja Nagar, District Bulandshahr.

3. Contention of learned counsel for the applicant is that though in the FIR, allegation has been made that the applicant has enticed away the daughter of first informant (victim), however the victim in her statement recorded under Sections 180 and 183 BNSS specifically stated that she is 17 years old and she herself left her house and no wrong was committed by the applicant against her consent. Learned counsel for the applicant has further submitted that the applicant has been falsely implicated and it is simply a case of love affair with the victim. This fact has been duly substantiated by the statement of victim. It is lastly submitted that charge sheet has been filed by the police, therefore, there is no requirement for custodial interrogation. The applicant has no criminal history and he is languishing in jail since 13.03.22026. In case, he is granted bail, he will not misuse the liberty of bail and would cooperate in the trial proceedings.

4. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. for the State opposed the prayer for bail but could not dispute the aforesaid fact.

Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, submissions of learned counsel for the parties and keeping in view the nature of offence, evidence, complicity of accused and taking into account overcrowded jails and heavy pendency of criminal cases before the trial courts as well as considering the mandate of the judgement of the Apex Court in the case of Kapil Wadhawan vs Central Bureau of Investigation reported in 2025 SCC Online SC 3038 as well as guideline of this Court in the case of Maya Tiwari vs State of U.P. reported in 2024 SCC Online All 6765 regarding grant of bail and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I am of the opinion that the applicant is entitled to be enlarged on bail. Accordingly, the present application is allowed.

6. Let the applicant- Kamil involved in the aforementioned crime be released on bail, on his furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount, to the satisfaction of the court concerned, with the following conditions:-

- i. The applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.
- ii. The applicant shall cooperate in the trial/investigation sincerely without seeking any adjournment.
- iii. The applicant shall not indulge in any criminal activity or commission of any crime after being released on bail.
- iv. The applicant shall attend in accordance with the conditions of the bond executed by him.

7. In case of breach of any of the above conditions, it shall be a ground for cancellation of bail.

8. Identity, status and residence proof of the applicant and sureties be verified by the court concerned before the bonds are accepted.

9. Verification of mobile number as well as Aadhaar Card of the applicant and sureties should also be conducted by the court concerned.

10. It is directed that the trial court shall send the release order to the concerned jail through Bail Order Management System (BOMS) to ensure early release of the applicant.
