1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant and the learned A.G.A. for the State of U.P.
2. The instant bail application has been filed seeking release of the applicant on bail in Case Crime No. 67 of 2026 under Section 309(2), 352, 115(2), 317(2) of B.N.S. and Section 3/25 of Arms Act, Police Station- Awagarh, District- Etah.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. The applicant is not named in the First Information Report, lodged by the victim/conductor of Bus No. UP 78 JT 0801. During course of investigation, the victim did not take name of the applicant as accused. No identification parade was conducted by the prosecution to connect the applicant with the alleged offence and the injuries, allegedly sustained by the bus driver, were simple in nature. The informant/victim sustained one contusion mark on just right side of ear pinna. The name of the applicant came in the light during course of investigation on 28.03.2026 in the statement of witness Vinod. A false recovery of Rs. 1170/-, a mobile phone and a country-made pistol, were shown from the possession of the applicant in order to connect the applicant with the alleged offence. The offence is exclusively triable by the court of magistrate. The chargesheet had already been submitted in the present case. It is further contended that co-accused Vipin, has been granted bail by this Court vide order dated 16.06.2026 in Crl. Misc. Bail Application No. 19881 of 2026. There is no criminal history of the applicant. Learned counsel for applicant further submits that applicant has been languishing in jail since 29.03.2026 and in case, he is released on bail, he will not misuse the liberty of bail and will cooperate in trial.

4. Per contra, learned A.G.A. has opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the applicant and submitted that there is ample evidence against the applicant regarding his involvement in the offence, therefore, he is not entitled to be released on bail.

5. Having considered the rival submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties, the nature of accusations, the evidence brought on record, the period of incarceration undergone by the applicant, the absence of any criminal antecedents, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this Court finds that the applicant has made out a case for grant of bail.

6. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.

7. Let the applicant- Shilendra @ Bhola, who is involved in the aforementioned case crime be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned subject to following conditions. Further, before issuing the release order, the sureties be verified.

(i) The applicant shall file an undertaking to the effect that he shall not seek any adjournment on the date fixed for evidence when the witnesses are present in Court. In case of default of this condition, it shall be open for the Trial Court to treat it as abuse of liberty of bail and pass orders in accordance with law.

(ii) The applicant shall remain present before the Trial Court on each date fixed, either personally or through his counsel. In case of his absence, without sufficient cause, the Trial Court may proceed against him under Section 229-A IPC/ 269 B.N.S.

If in the opinion of the Trial Court absence of the applicant is deliberate or without sufficient cause, then it shall be open for the Trial Court to treat such default as abuse of liberty of bail and proceed against him in accordance with law.

8. In case of breach of any of the above conditions, it shall be a ground for cancellation of bail.

9. It is made clear that observations made in granting bail to the applicant shall not in any way affect the learned trial Judge in forming his independent opinion based on the testimony of the witnesses.
