3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case. He has nothing to do with the alleged offence. Learned counsel for the applicant next contends that the similarly situated co-accused, namely, Shatrudhan Yadav and Gorakh Gautam have been granted bail by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide orders dated 12.12.2025 and 05.01.2026 passed in Criminal Misc. Bail Application Nos.44025 of 2025 and 45243 of 2025. Copies of bail orders of the aforesaid co-accused have been produced by learned counsel for the applicant, which are taken on record. He further contends that the criminal history of the applicant has been well explained in paragraph no.16 of the affidavit filed in support of the bail application and in paragraph no.2 of the supplementary affidavit. He is in jail since 08.11.2025 and in case, he is released on bail, he will not misuse the liberty of bail and will cooperate in trial.

4. Learned A.G.A., on the other hand, opposed the prayer for grant of bail, however, he could not dispute the fact that similarly situated co-accused, namely, Shatrudhan Yadav and Gorakh Gautam have been granted bail by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court.

5. I have considered the rival submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties and perused the material brought on the record.

6. In view of the entire facts and circumstances of the case, especially taking into account the fact that the similarly situated co-accused, namely, Shatrudhan Yadav and Gorakh Gautam have been granted bail by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court and the same orders have not been set aside or stayed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, and the applicant has been languishing in jail since 08.11.2025, I deem it appropriate to enlarge the applicant on bail.
