Court No. - 71

HON'BLE VIVEK KUMAR SINGH, J.

1. Heard Sri Pawan Kumar, learned counsel for the applicant, the learned A.G.A. for the State of U.P. and perused the record.

2. The instant bail application has been filed seeking release of the applicant on bail in Case Crime No.48 of 2026, under Sections 69, 352, 351(3) of B.N.S., 2023, Police Station- Azeemnagar, District- Rampur.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is admitted case of the prosecution that the victim was a major girl, aged about 22 years. The victim was in a consensual relationship with the applicant for a period of one and a half years. The allegation that the applicant subjected the victim to rape on the false promise of marriage is false. In fact, the applicant and the victim were in a romantic relationship, and when things did not work out and their relationship turned sour, a false FIR was lodged by the family members of the victim alleging therein that she was being raped on the false promise of marriage. It is not made clear by the victim as to why the matter was not reported by her when the alleged offence of rape was committed for the first time.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has further relied upon the judgment of this Court in Application U/S 482 No.752 of 2022 (Sanjay Saroj @ Sanjay Kumar Vs. State of U.P. and Another), decided on 18.06.2026, wherein proceedings under Section 376 I.P.C. was quashed by this Court. It is further submitted that the applicant has no criminal history to his credit. He has been languishing in jail since 31.03.2026 and in case, he is released on bail, he will not misuse the liberty of bail and will cooperate in trial.

5. Per contra, learned A.G.A. has opposed the prayer for grant of bail to the applicant and submitted that there is ample evidence against the applicant regarding his involvement in the offence, therefore, he is not entitled to be released on bail.

6. Having considered the rival submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties, the nature of accusations, the evidence brought on record, the period of incarceration undergone by the applicant, explanation of criminal antecedents, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this Court finds that the applicant has made out a case for grant of bail.

7. Accordingly, the bail application is allowed.

8. Let the applicant- Anil Kumar, who is involved in the aforementioned case crime be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned subject to following conditions. Further, before issuing the release order, the sureties be verified.

(i) The applicant shall file an undertaking to the effect that he shall not seek any adjournment on the date fixed for evidence when the witnesses are present in Court. In case of default of this condition, it shall be open for the Trial Court to treat it as abuse of liberty of bail and pass orders in accordance with law.

(ii) The applicant shall remain present before the Trial Court on each date fixed, either personally or through his counsel. In case of his absence, without sufficient cause, the Trial Court may proceed against him under Section 229-A IPC/ 269 B.N.S.

(iii) In case, the applicant misuses the liberty of bail during trial and in order to secure his presence proclamation under Section 82 Cr.P.C./ 84 B.N.S.S., may be issued and if applicant fails to appear before the Court on the date fixed in such proclamation, then, the Trial Court shall initiate proceedings against him, in accordance with law, under Section 174-A IPC/ 209 B.N.S.

(iv) The applicant shall remain present, in person, before the Trial Court on dates fixed for (1) opening of the case, (2) framing of charge and (3) recording of statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C./ 351 of B.N.S.S. If in the opinion of the Trial Court absence of the applicant is deliberate or without sufficient cause, then it shall be open for the Trial Court to treat such default as abuse of liberty of bail and proceed against him in accordance with law.

9. In case of breach of any of the above conditions, it shall be a ground for cancellation of bail.

10. It is made clear that observations made in granting bail to the applicant shall not in any way affect the learned trial Judge in forming his independent opinion based on the testimony of the witnesses.
